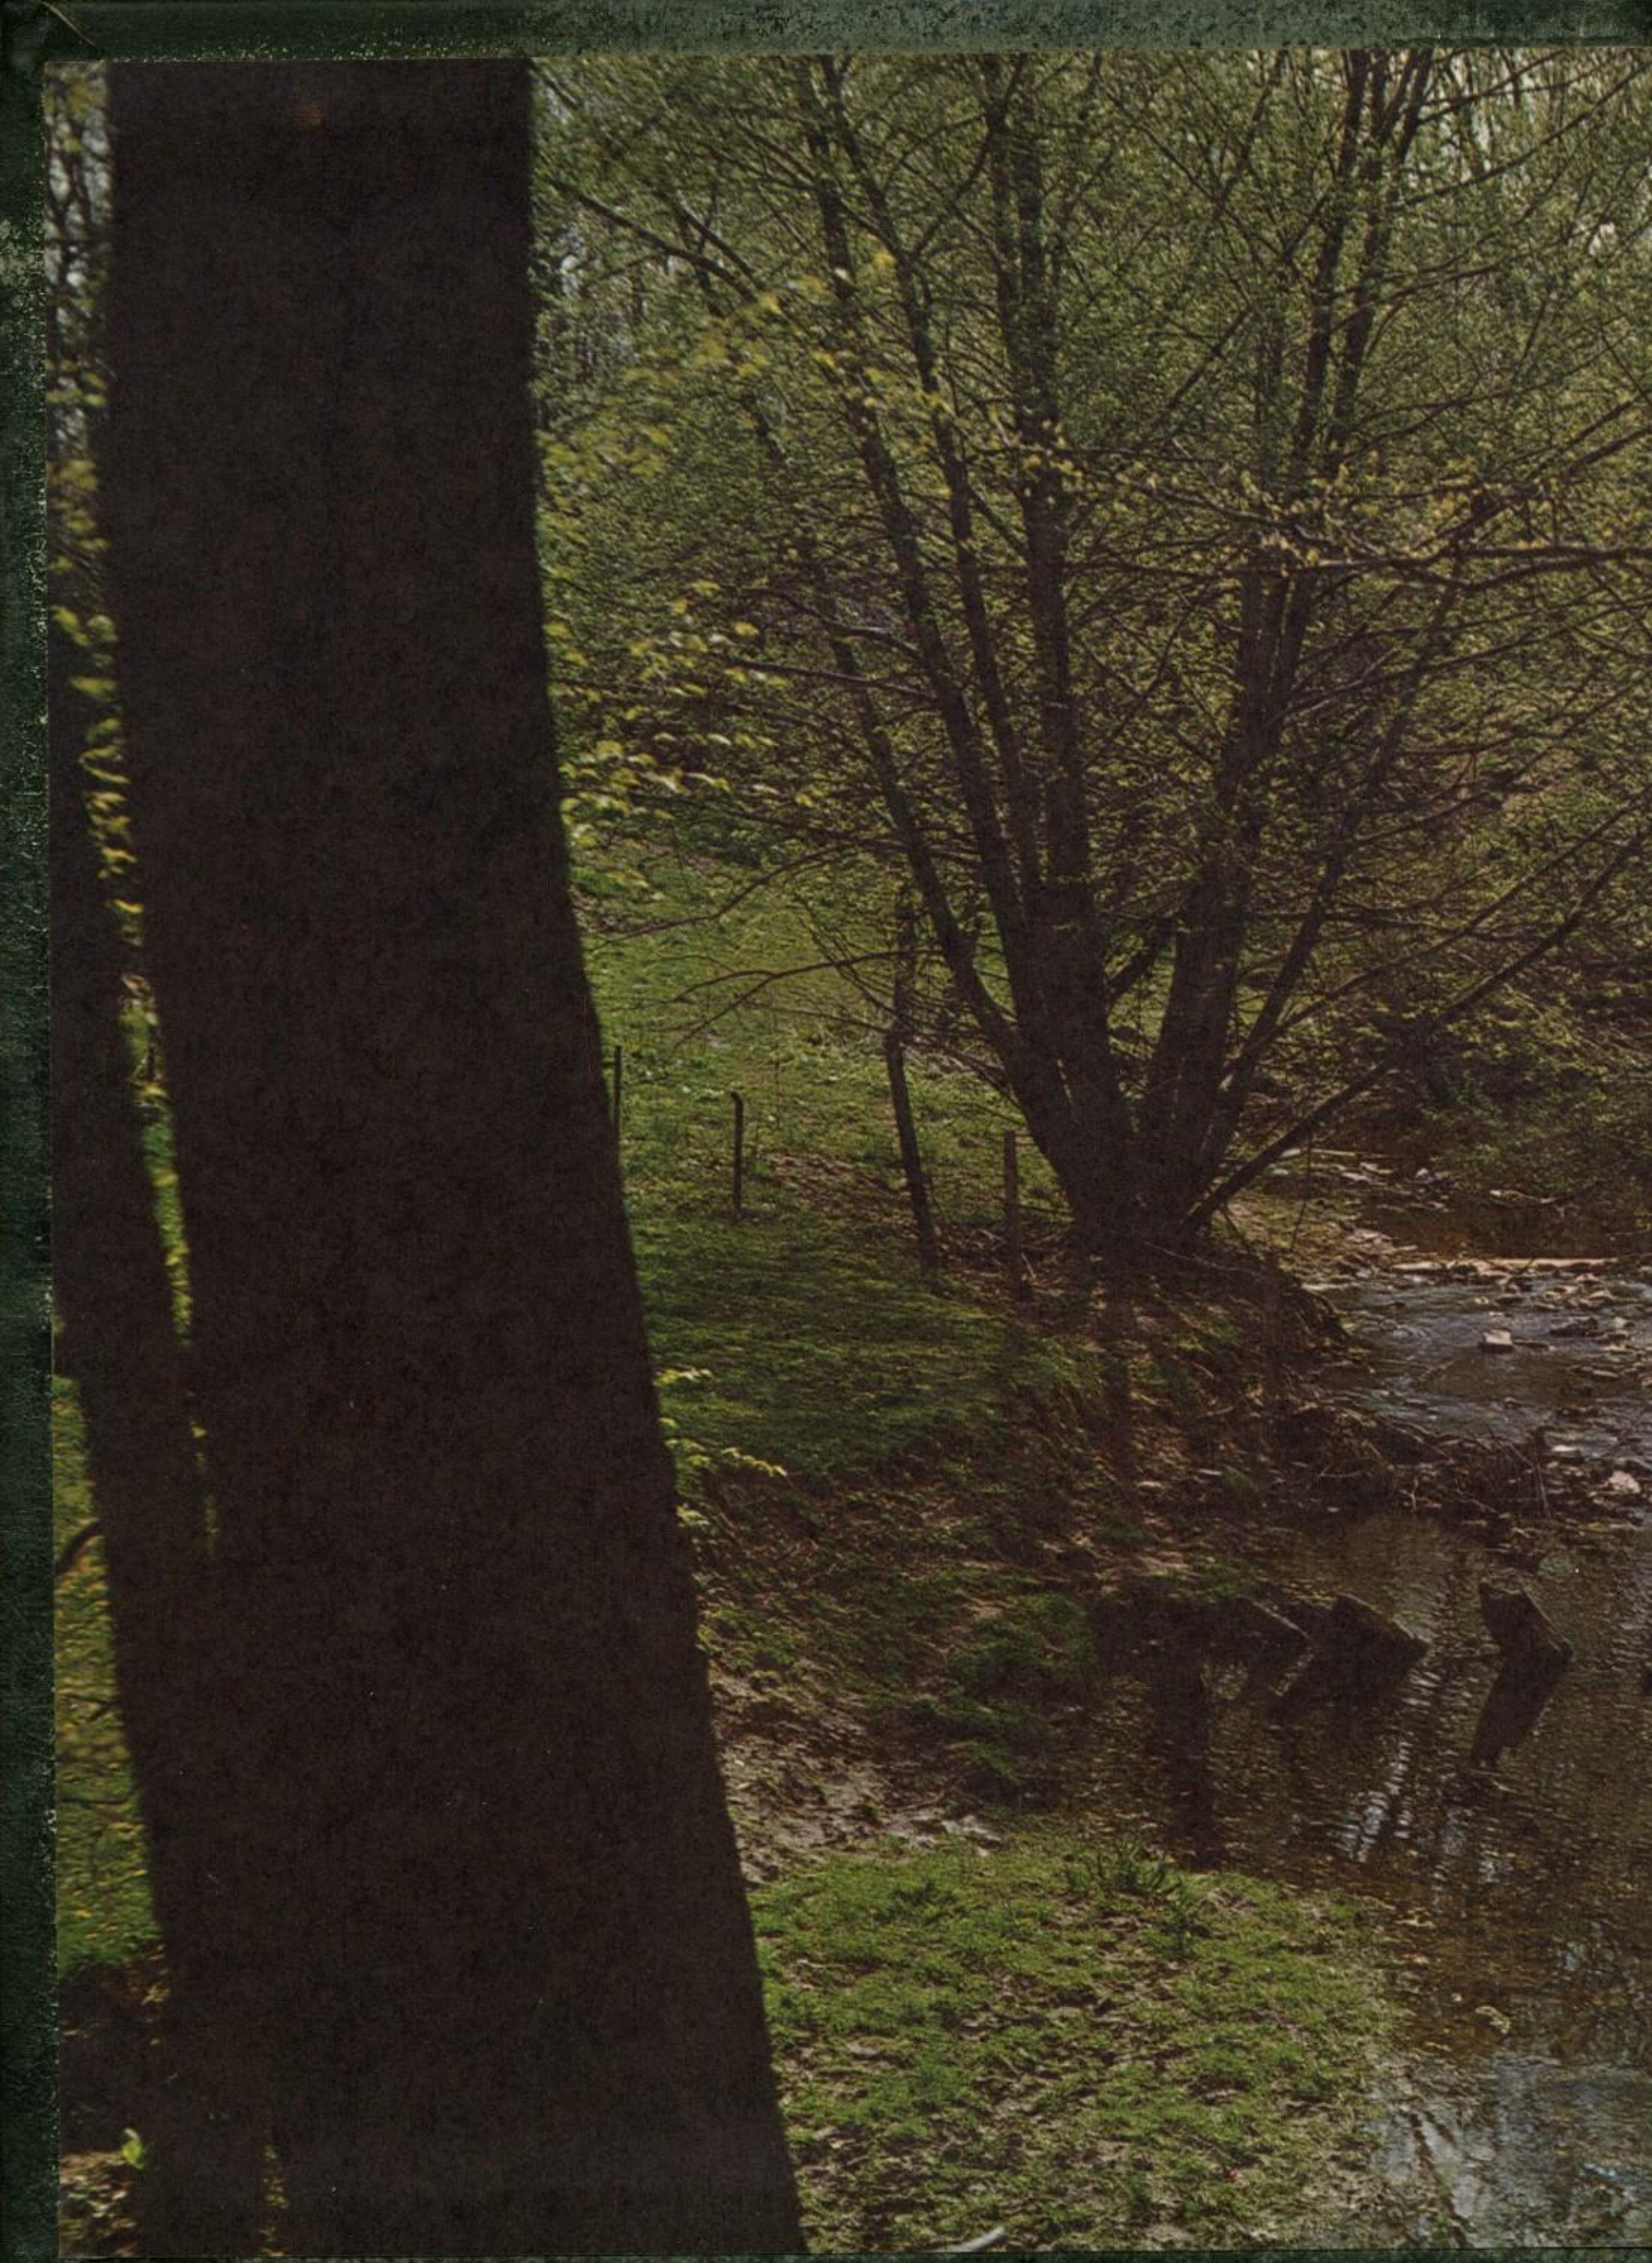
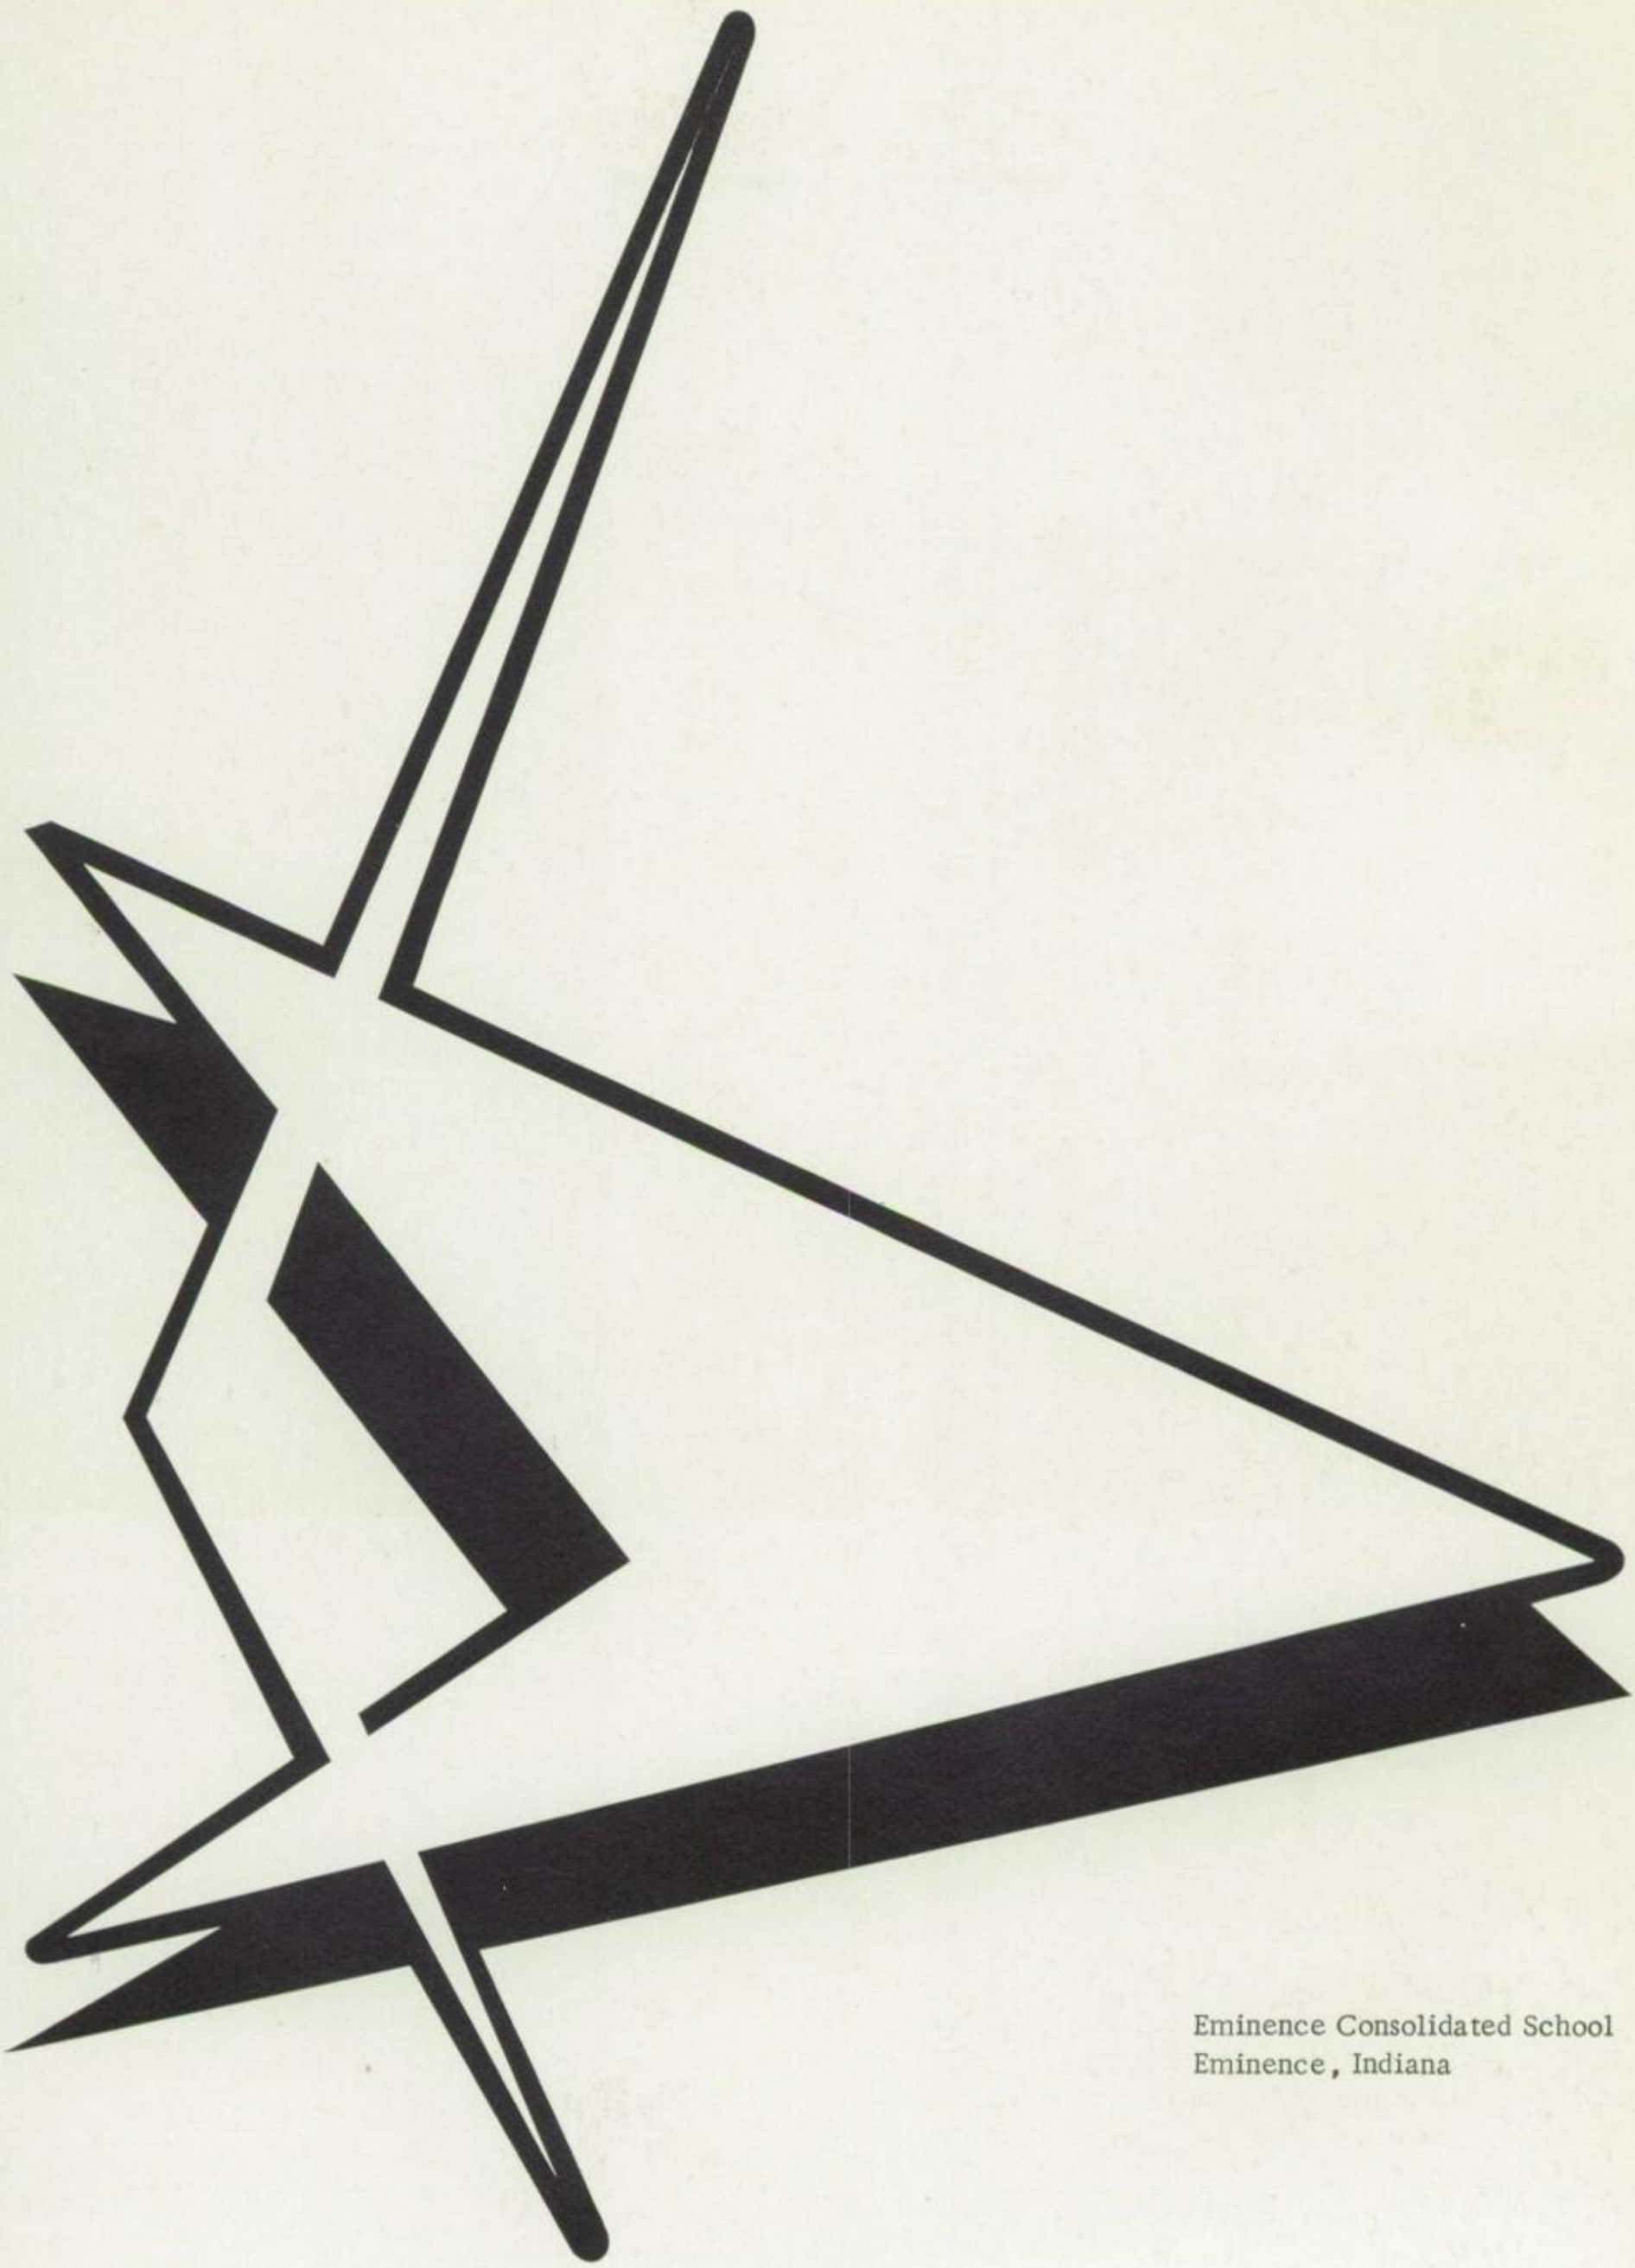
The Emitonian

1967





Eminence Consolidated School
Eminence, Indiana

Foreword

We, the Staff of the 1967 Emitonian, invite you--parents, faculty, and students--to step through these doors and recall the memories of the school year '66-'67.

As you look through this yearbook we hope that you can share with us the fun, hopes, successes, and even the disappointments that we have encountered. We sincerely wish to thank our parents and the faculty for their co-operation and assistance in making this yearbook possible.

Emitonian Staff

The Annual Staff has worked very hard this year to meet all of our deadlines and to make our annual of interest to everyone.

Administration

Principal's Message

Congratulations upon completion of your high school days. May you long remember the pleasures and good times that you have been privileged to have while here at Eminence.

I sincerely hope that as you leave us now, remember that to be successful in your worldly tasks, you must put forth the same kind of effort shown in your high school days.

Again, I congratulate you and it has been a pleasure to have known and worked with you.

Elmer Whitaker

Morris B. Moore is assistant principal and student councelor.

Board of Education

JOY BALDWIN

40 Years of Service

Started her teacher training in the summer of 1915 at Indiana State. In 1919 she attended Madame Blakers, Indianapolis; in 1922-23 attended Indiana University and in 1953 received her B.S. degree from Indiana State.

Her first year of teaching was at Precinct School, Ashland Township, Morgan Co. in 1915-16, grades 1-8. The next two years 1916-1918 she taught grades 1-4 at Edwards School in Ashland Township. 1918-1920 found her at Eminence School in Adams Township, teaching grades 1-2. Florida beckoned her for the next two years at St. Augustine, teaching grade 6. She came back and attended Indiana University in 1922-23.

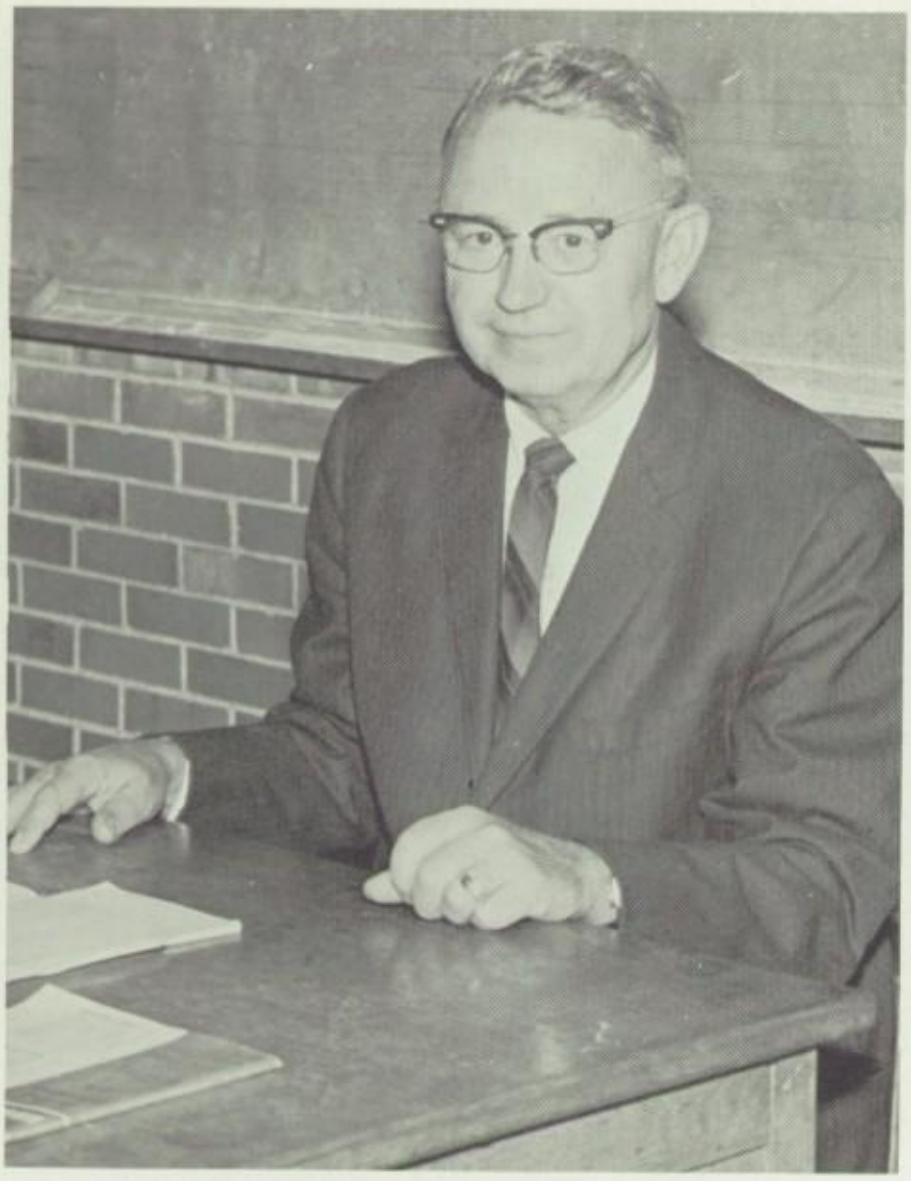
Again the school room beckoned her at Homor School in Rush County for two years, teaching grades 1-4 the first year and 7-8 the second in 1923-25. For a period of ten years she did not teach but in 1935 found her at Wakeland School in Morgan Co., grades 1-6 for two years, 1937-38. She was at Lewisville school grades 4-6 in 1938-39. Again for one year she took a vacation from the school room; but in 1940 she again returned to Lewisville School for 10 years, teaching grades 1-3. In 1950 she came to Eminence Consolidated School, where she has been teaching the second grade for 17 years.

BILL MOORE, who is the school's Guidance Counselor, teaches Social Studies and English. He is also the Athletic Director and Sponsor of the Junior Class.

FREEDA HODGE besides her duties of school Librarian and Latin teacher, she finds time to be the School Treasurer and Honor Society and Sunshine Society Sponsor.

BLANCHE BURNETT is shown in the Home Economics room. She teaches all homemaking classes and also a Junior High English class.

JUDITH OGLE is reviewing grammar with the Sophomore Class. She also teaches four other English classes.



PAUL BUIS is checking attendance in his General Math Class. He teaches English and other Math Classes. He is also the Seventh Grade Class Sponsor.

PHYLLIS ROMINGER is shown taking care of the study hall. Besides instructing all girls' Phy. Ed. Classes, she teaches Commerce and is the Freshman Class Sponsor.

GENE QUICK is in charge of all high school Math and Science Courses. He also teaches Junior High Math Classes.

MARCIA SCHAEFFER supervises the school's Music Department. This includes High School Band and Chorus, Junior High Chorus, and grade school music classes. She is also the Sponsor of the Sunshine Society.

PIERCY MASTEN is shown teaching one of his Mechanical Drawing Classes. He also teaches Junior High Health and Science.

OREN SUTHERLIN teaches Commerce, Driver's Ed., and Phy. Ed. He is also the Assistant Basketball Coach and Senior Class Sponsor.

LANNY PARKER is our Varsity Basketball and Track Coach. He is shown supervising the study hall and at the same time planning basketball moves. He also teaches Social Studies and is Senior Class Sponsor.

BUS DRIVERS--Bud Curtis, Charles Hicks, Ed Awbrey, Conrad Hall, Oscar Ward, Ray Allen Stockwell, Wayne Baker, Lee Voshell, Ray Jines, Jimmy Stierwalt.

COOKS--Gretchen Lopossa, Ruth Stockwell, Bertha Bell, Sophie Rominger.

Fame for Basketball Players' Participation

The Pom Pons add color and sparkle to the Band with their snappy routines.

The Majorettes have also added to the Band with their twirling abilities and precise routines.

Jr. Band

The Junior Band prepares a student for participation in the High School Band.

H.S. Chorus

Mrs. Schaeffer directs the High School Chorus at many special programs and school convocations.

Jr. Hi. Chorus

The Junior High Chorus usually performs along with the High School Chorus at convocations and other school functions.

Beginning Band

In Beginner's Band the students learn the basic fundamentals of music.

THE SUNSHINE SOCIETY'S main purpose is contributing to the Riley Fund and spreading cheer to those in our community. The Sunshine sponsors are Mrs. Hodge and Mrs. Schaefer.

THE SUNRAY SOCIETY is made up of Junior High girls. Their sponsor is Mrs. Rominger.

Alice Parker rode in the Martinsville Fall Foliage Parade as the result of her winning a teen-age photography contest. Her entry is shown above.

Jo Ann Rominger was chosen as a candidate for the Martinsville Fall Foliage Festival Queen. Theresa Thacker and Isaac Brock were Snow Queen and King.

As one of their numerous activities this year, the FFA helped the National Food Producers with a chicken barbecue.

The FFA members take numerous field trips as a part of their study of agriculture.

The boys in agricultural classes have varied activities from day to day in the shop.

The Torpedo Staff works hard to print and circulate the school news.

Girls' 4-H Club brought home many blue ribbons from both the County and State Fairs.

Boys' 4-H Club had several winners among their State Fair entries this year.

Sizzling Eels Crush Arrows In 107-75 Rout

UNIONVILLE — The Eminence Eels came away from a close 26-23 first stanza lead to whitewash Union-ville 107-75 in hardwood action here Friday night.

It was senior forward Mike Buis that spelled the difference, as the hot-shooting six footer blasted in 18 fielders and a pair of free tosses for 38 points to lead the Eels.

The Arrows, now 0-2, got good ring from senior forward Don ...ds who hit the nets for 28 points, ...ust couldn't handle the hot-...ng Eels.

ROW 2: Jimmy Brown, Chester Burnett, Tim Dearlove, Ronnie Humble, Don Steckler, Steve Watkins, Doug Adams, Dennis Doran, Isaac Brock, Coach Sutherlin.

Freshman Team

Phillip Rawlins, with assistance from Chester Burnett demonstrate an easy way to make a basket due to lack of height. Rex Rhea, Robert Brown and Bobby Eve look on as Coach Sutherlin instructs them.

Eighth Grade

The Eighth Graders show the makings of a good future team for E.H.S.

Fifth & Sixth Grade

The Sixth and Fifth Grade teams played Monrovia, Hall, and Cloverdale and won a majority of their games.

Seventh Grade

The Seventh Grade team has won all but three of their games so far this season. Coach Crabtree is proud of his boys.

Pep Club

THE PEP CLUB backs the team and urges them on to victory.
